

BAYARD CRITICIZED BY REPRESENTATIVES

HOUSE TAKES UP RESOLUTIONS OF CENSURE.

Our Ambassador to Great Britain Severely Arraigned by Representative Hitt and Others—Senator Vest Attacks the Administration—General Capital City News.

Washington, March 19.—The house Wednesday entered upon the consideration of the resolutions censuring Mr. Bayard for speeches delivered by him before the Grammar school at Boston, England, and before the Edinburgh (Scotland) Philosophical institution last fall.

Mr. Hitt, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, and Mr. McCreary, who was chairman of the committee in the last congress, opened respectively for and against the resolutions. Mr. Draper (rep., Mass.) announced his inability to bring himself to vote for the resolutions on censure. If the utterances were inappropriate the punishment was too harsh. Mr. Cousins' speech in support of the resolutions was the feature of the proceedings. The debate will conclude today.

Mr. Hitt reviewed the speeches delivered by Mr. Bayard. The one at Edinburgh, delivered two days after the November election, he characterized as a "political diatribe." That speech called attention again to the speech

AMBASSADOR BAYARD, previously delivered at Boston, describing the Americans as a "violent people." That, he said, was the case upon which the committee on foreign affairs reported these resolutions of censure.

In declaring his opposition to the resolutions of censure, Mr. McCreary (dem., Ky.) said that they were unprecedented in congressional history. The proposed action of the house was an invasion of the rights and authority of the president of the United States, and if the speeches of Mr. Bayard referred to in the resolutions required action by the executive he was sure the latter would do his duty at the proper time. Since the organization of the government the president, Mr. McCreary said, had controlled our diplomatic officers, recalling, removing or reprimanding them when it was deemed necessary.

Mr. Cousins (rep., Iowa), also a member of the committee, supported the resolutions. He said: "This deliberate and unexampled breach of diplomatic etiquette, this ungrateful, unprovoked and unbecoming insult to a majority of the people of America, to her distinguished living and her honored dead, by one who bore their confidence, their mission and credentials, must not be left unchallenged, since it has entered the annals of our diplomatic history."

Mr. Bayard, he declared, toadied to the Cobden club and to the school of Manchester and to his own prejudice, and told Great Britain that protection in America had banished men of independent mind and character from its public councils, when he knew that on the very day he uttered that indictment the list of independent minds that championed the doctrine of protection in America had grown to the greatest and most significant majority that ever spoke their independence at a popular election in this country.

Mr. Dinsmore (dem., Ark.), in closing, analyzed Mr. Bayard's utterances on the subject of protection and defended them. He quoted from Senator Chandler's interview about the "levies on protected industries" by the boomers of McKinley. This statement brought Mr. Grosvenor (rep., Ohio) to his feet, with an indignant denial of its truth.

ADMINISTRATION ATTACKED.

Senator Vest Declares the President Is Unfair to the West.

Washington, March 19.—During the consideration in the senate Wednesday of a resolution to open the Uncompahgre reservation in Utah Secretary Hoke Smith was severely criticised by Senators Cannon (Utah), Wolcott (Col.) and Vest (Mo.), and the last named said there had been a time when a cabinet officer who deliberately disobeyed the law would be brought before the bar of the senate, but that it was now quite common for such officers to refuse to carry out the law.

Mr. Vest declared there was a disposition on the part of the administration not to treat the people of the west fairly, and as if they did not know what they wanted. He referred to the late address of the president to the Presbyterian mission board in New York, the president standing on the threshold of the rum holes and places of vice in New York and saying the people of the west needed missionary aid. Senator Vest said that if the president would hunt fewer ducks in North Carolina and silver democrats in Kentucky it would be better for the country.

Senator Vilas pleaded for time to consider the resolution. Its passage would be a reflection upon the secretary and even upon the president. The Uncompahgre reservation bill finally was laid aside after being made the unfinished business after the pending Arkansas claim bill was disposed of, and then Mr. Thurston took the floor on the Dupont case.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS WIN.

Senate Foreign Committee Decides to Support the Conferees.

Washington, March 19.—The senate committee on foreign-relations decided Wednesday to stand by the agreement reached by the senate conferees and to support the house Cuban motions as a substitute for the senate resolutions on the same subject. The committee was not a unit on the proposition, but it was carried by a safe majority. Among the objections made to the house declaration were those based upon grammatical construction and the reference to this country's commercial interest in the settlement of the Cuban trouble. These blemishes were generally admitted, but it was contended that the principal objection in the senate was not so much to the house resolution as to any expression whatever. Senator Sherman, as chairman of the committee, was requested to keep the Cuban question as well to the front as possible and to get a vote at the earliest possible date.

Arbitration Bill Discussed.

Washington, March 19.—The house committee on labor has entered upon the consideration of the bill introduced by Representative Erdman (Pa.) in relation to arbitration between carriers engaged in interstate commerce and their employees. The following gentlemen appeared before the committee: E. E. Clark, general chief of the Order of Railway Conductors; Mr. Morrissey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; F. P. Sargent, grand secretary, and W. F. Hynes, grand trustee, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and W. V. Powell, grand chief of the Order of Railway Telegraphers. All favored the bill with unimportant amendments.

Money for Pensions.

Washington, March 19.—The secretary of the interior has made a requisition on the treasury for $10,190,000 for pension payments, as follows: Buffalo, $1,565,000; Chicago, $2,375,000; Concord, $700,000; Des Moines, $1,950,000; Milwaukee, $1,750,000; Pittsburg, $1,550,000; Washington, $100,000; Indianapolis, $100,000.

KANSAS POPULISTS.

Convention Adopts a Platform and Selects National Delegates.

Hutchinson, Kas., March 19.—The populist state convention Wednesday unanimously and without debate adopted the platform reported, which is along the lines of the Omaha resolutions. It begins with an appeal to all opponents of the single gold standard to unite in state and national alliances with the people's party. It favors economical government, demands the overthrow of trusts and government ownership and control of the public utilities; demands that power be taken from the president and secretary of the treasury to issue bonds, maintains that all money should be issued by the government, favors free coinage at 16 to 1 independent of other nations, and concludes with a denunciation of trial of citizens by injunction or contempt proceedings without trial by jury.

Delegates to the national convention at St. Louis were selected, apparently without strife. They are: Ex-Gov. Lewelling, John W. Breidenthal, W. A. Harris and Frank Doster. Eighty-eight other delegates were chosen by congressional districts. They are practically solid for a union of all advocates of free silver upon a common ticket and are not decided upon any candidate, preferring to await developments.

Cyclone Sweeps Over Texas.

Beaumont, Texas, March 19.—Wednesday morning a cyclonic wind swept down three miles from here and turned the house of George Geldarm bottom up, completely wrecking it. Mrs. Geldarm was knocked senseless and one of her children hurt. The residences of Joseph Beghter and C. E. Hildebrand were blown from their foundations. The wind then seemed to leave the earth, but two miles eastward dipped down again, overturning a school house and wrecking John Holmes' house. The storm then skipped toward Louisiana.

Blackburn Tendered a Banquet.

Lexington, Ky., March 19.—Senator Blackburn, accompanied by a number of his staunch friends in the legislature, came here Wednesday night and were tendered a banquet by the Blackburn men of this city. In a speech he characterized the sound money democrats who failed to vote for him as traitors led astray by Cleveland and Carlisle. His denunciation of them was bitter, since but for their obedience to Mr. Carlisle he would have been elected without difficulty.

WEYLER TO RESIGN HIS CUBAN POST

HAS TOO MANY DIFFICULTIES TO OVERCOME.

Startling Interview With the Spanish General Published at Madrid—Desperate Battle Fought Which the Cubans Were Defeated as Usual by Official Report.

Madrid, March 19.—General Weyler, the captain general of Cuba, in an interview published here, is quoted as saying that the difficulties he has encountered may compel him to resign. In the published interview General Weyler is quoted as expressing great surprise at the charges made against him in the United States "in view of his great prudence pending the settlement of the question of belligerency." General Weyler is also credited with having said that the attitude of congress stops the normal development of the war.

Continuing the interview places General Weyler on record as saying that numbers of persons are joining the insurgents from all parts of Cuba and even from the capital, Havana, because they hope they will be recognized as belligerents. The Spanish soldiers, the captain general is said to have added, are fighting heroically and it is impossible to ask them to do more.

In conclusion, General Weyler is said to have related that he is confident of the eventual success of the Spanish cause, but the "contradictory demands of prudence and extreme measures, combined with difficulties arising from the question of belligerency and the elections," may compel him to resign.

Desperate Battle in Cuba.

Havana, March 19.—A hot battle between the forces under Colonel Hernandez and the insurgents under Maceo, Banderas and others, is reported from the neighborhood of Candelaria, in Pinar del Rio. The insurgent loss is reported to have been 300 killed and wounded. Of the troops Captain Torroja Guerrero was killed and Lieutenant Comas wounded. The official report also says that five soldiers were killed and fifty-six wounded.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT TAMER.

Semi-Official Declaration of Friendship for Great Britain.

Paris, March 19.—The French government gave evidence last night that the announcement made by M. Berthelot Tuesday of the remonstrance he had offered against the Egyptian campaign up the Nile in a conversation with the Marquis of Dufferin was taken much more seriously than they were prepared for. The outbreak of approval from the French press and people and the popular clamor for even more decisive measures of protest seem to have alarmed the government and awakened an apprehension that they are being precipitated into a position of hostility to the plan of Great Britain backed by the approval of the dreibund which might entail the gravest consequences. The enthusiasm awakened in France, in fact, seems to enter more into the apprehensions of the French ministers than the irritation abroad.

As a consequence steps have been taken to dull a little the seemingly sharp edge of the communication made to the British ambassador by M. Berthelot, the minister of foreign affairs. The following explanation, with its distinct tone of deprecation, is made semi-officially:

"Tuesday's note was merely a short and rapidly drafted summary of the objections which France found it necessary to formulate in view of the unexpected and sudden decision of Great Britain.

"France also intended unequivocally to intimate that she did not intend to ignore the matter.

"But this in nowise implies a hostile attitude. On the contrary, they think that, in view of the mutual friendly relations, frank and outspoken language will contribute to the removal of misunderstandings.

"The interview between M. Berthelot and the Marquis of Dufferin was of the friendliest character. It was pointed out that it was incumbent upon the guardians of the Egyptian fund to ascertain the necessity for an action entailing large outlays, and that it was preferable that the attitude to be taken should be defined at the outset, instead of being left in doubt."

It would seem that the dreibund has practically triumphed and there will be no serious opposition upon the part of France to the British advance up the Nile.

Le Jour, however, declares that Russia and France are in "complete accord in regard to Egypt." But this may mean little or nothing so far as interfering with the plans of the Marquis of Salisbury are concerned.

Additional dispatches received here from Cairo show that the greatest activity prevails among the British-Egyptian military officials there, and that every step necessary to arrange for the departure of the troops from Wady-Halfa April 1, as originally planned, is being taken, and that nobody there seems to doubt that the plan of campaign will be carried out.

SAWYER AND HOARD THE MEN SELECTED

WORK OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Elliott and Stout Will Accompany Them to St. Louis—E. D. Coe Is Named as Chairman of the State Central Committee—McKinley Endorsed—Political News.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 19.—The republican state convention held here Wednesday indorsed McKinley for president and declared for protection and "sound money." Ex-United States Senator Philletus Sawyer and ex-Gov. W. D. Hoard were pitted against each other as rival candidates for delegates-at-large to the national convention. Both were chosen delegates-at-large, so the result was a draw.

John J. Esch of LaCrosse, who was elected permanent chairman at the preliminary session at noon and who made an eloquent address on taking the chair, called the convention to order at 2:30 o'clock. The platform was adopted, McKinley indorsed, and the convention proceeded to nominations for delegates-at-large by congressional districts. The first three districts—Hoard strongholds—threw the bulk of their vote for Hoard, but there was a sufficient division to show that some of the Hoard men were voting for Sawyer on this ballot, and when Sawyer's districts were reached he came to the front and was elected by a vote of 287 to 286. An effort was at once made to elect Hoard by acclamation, but this was ruled out of order, and the 4th district placed Eugene Elliott in nomination. This was a challenge to the Hoard men, and the report at once spread that the Milwaukee people had formed a combination with the Sawyer forces to down Hoard. The result showed Hoard's strength, for despite the fact that the 4th and 7th districts cast their full strength—127 votes—for Elliott, he was defeated by a vote of 498 to 271. The announcement was received with cheers.

The danger of a rupture was now past, and the rest was smooth sailing. Elliott was elected without opposition. Stout and Scofield then made the deciding contest, and Stout won by a vote of 374 to 304.

The chairmanship of the republican state central committee was an easy victory for Ed Coe, the Whitewater editor. His only opponent was Dr. W. A. Jones of Oconomowoc. Sam Harper's name was not presented, and the result was: Coe, 468; Jones, 208.

The convention adopted the following brief platform:

"The republicans of Wisconsin in convention assembled renew their devotion to the doctrine of protection. We favor, as a logical and beneficial result of protective tariff laws, mutual trade arrangements with foreign countries that will provide for our manufacturers and producers a market for their surplus product, and at the same time enable us to buy from them, under advantageous conditions, such articles as they produce and we need to purchase. We are unalterably opposed to any policy that will give to this country a depreciated or debased currency. We favor the use of silver as currency, but to the extent only and under such restrictions that its parity with gold can be maintained."

The resolution indorsing McKinley is as follows: "Resolved, That the republicans of Wisconsin recognize in the Hon. William McKinley of Ohio the most distinguished champion of the republican policy of protection and reciprocity; that we honor him as the defender of a sound system of finance, and we hereby express to the delegates elected to the St. Louis convention our judgment that they should use all reasonable effort to secure his nomination for the presidency."

McKinley Leads in Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., March 19.—From late developments in Alabama it seems that McKinley will get almost the entire delegation from this state to the St. Louis convention. Out of thirty-four counties which have selected delegates to the state convention, thirty of them have chosen McKinley men. The other thirty-two counties will send a majority of McKinley delegates to the state convention.

Politics in Illinois.

Joliet, Ill., March 19.—The republicans of Will county met here Wednesday. The feeling in convention was for McKinley, although no resolution was introduced to that effect.

Mount Vernon, Ill., March 19.—The republicans of Jefferson county met Wednesday. Resolutions indorsing McKinley for president and W. E. Mason for United States senator were adopted.

McKinley's Strength Questioned.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 19.—It is now said that the McKinley managers in the state have been counting on more than they will get. Friends of Allison are offering to wager that one-third and perhaps one-half of the delegates chosen today will vote for Allison. The possibility of Gen. Harrison's name being taken up by anti-McKinley republicans of the country will stand in the way of the desire of several districts to instruct.

In Favor of Fusion with Populists.

Raleigh, N. C., March 19.—The republican state executive committee met here Wednesday. The committee decided to call the state convention to meet here May 17 and 18. The executive committee adopted the policy of Senator Pritchard, leader of the fusion element, and a committee of five was named to confer with the populists with a view to fusion, this committee to report to the republican state convention the result of the conference.

New York Conventions Exciting.

New York, March 19.—Never were such exciting republican district conventions held in this city as those which marked the election of national delegates. At 2:15 a. m. Thursday the Thirteenth district convention adjourned after an all-night turmoil. There will be a contest for the seats at St. Louis. Resolutions indorsing Governor Morton were adopted.

South Dakota Conventions.

Huron, S. D., March 19.—Republican primaries here chose delegates to the state convention here on March 25 to name national convention delegates. They are mostly McKinley men. Those chosen for state convention at Aberdeen to name a state ticket are favorable to McKinley.

Bimetallists Are Active.

London, March 19.—There was a big meeting here Wednesday of the Bimetallist league, and it was determined to continue active communications with the bimetallists of France, Germany, Austria and Belgium in order to promote a great campaign in all the industrial centers.

Maryland Republicans Meet April 22.

Baltimore, Md., March 19.—The republican state committee has fixed up on Baltimore as the place and April 22 as the time for holding the republican state convention.

Georgia County for McKinley.

Savannah, Ga., March 19.—The Chatham county republican convention elected McKinley delegates to the Georgia state convention.

NICARAGUA CANAL BILL.

Measure of Mr. Mahon Approved by the Special Subcommittee.

Washington, March 19.—The Nicaragua canal bill, which probably will be pushed in the house, was agreed upon Wednesday by the special subcommittee which has for several weeks wrestled with the many schemes introduced. Mr. Mahon, of Pennsylvania, is the author of the plan which meets the views of the committee. Government control, with possible ownership by the United States in the future, is the vital principle of the bill, which provides for the reorganization of the Maritime Canal company, the payment of all its debts, so that a satisfactory statement shall be presented to the secretary of the treasury; the selection of a board of fifteen directors, ten of them named by the United States, three by the canal company, and one each by Nicaragua and Costa Rica. The issue of bonds may not exceed $100,000,000, with interest at 3 per cent, the bonds to be guaranteed by the United States and redeemed at the pleasure of the government. In consideration for its guarantee for bonds, the United States is to be given stock of the company to an amount equal to the bonds issued. Out of its net earnings the company is to pay—first, the interest on its bonded debt, then a dividend on the stock not to exceed 5 per cent, and the balance, if any, to go into a sinking fund for the payment of principal and interest of the first mortgage. The canal is to be built by three engineers of the United States army.

Gov. Bradley Hanged in Effigy.

Danville, Ky., March 19.—Gov. Bradley was hanged in effigy in Danville some time Tuesday night or during the early hours of the morning. At daylight the stuffed figure was swinging from a telephone line which crosses Main street in the business center of the town. The perpetrators are unknown, as they were not seen by the night police. Feeling is very strong among the democratic students at Center college, who were friendly to Blackburn, and many place the blame in that quarter.

Noted Divines in Attendance.

Señalia, Mo., March 19.—Several noted divines were present Wednesday at the opening session here of the twenty-eighth annual conference of the St. Louis Methodist Episcopal church. Among them were Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell of San Francisco, the Rev. Dr. Manley S. Hard of Philadelphia, and Dr. J. C. Hartzell of Cincinnati.

Railway Officials Exonerated.

St. Louis, March 19.—The coroner's jury that has been investigating the collision on the Kirkwood electric line on March 8, in which Robert Aiken, Julius E. Jones and Richard J. Lalligan were killed and about fifty people injured, returned a verdict exonerating officials of the company.

Jackson and Walling Want Time.

Cincinnati, March 19.—The attorneys of Jackson and Walling will appear before Judge Helm to-day, when the date for the trial will be fixed. The commonwealth will then ask for an immediate trial, and the defense for sixty days in which to prepare for the trial. It is thought that the trial will begin about the middle of April.

Vote to Admit the Women.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 19.—The Methodist Episcopal conference in session here Wednesday voted 117 to 89 to admit women as lay delegates to the general conference.

STOCK SLAYER SHOT NEAR GREEN BAY

JOHN VANHOOVAN IN JAIL AT DEATH'S DOOR.

He Was Trying to Poison Nic Engels' Cattle When Engell Fired Two Loads of Buckshot Into Him—He Cannot Recover—Wisconsin Lumbermen in Conference.

Green Bay, Wis., March 19.—[Special.]—John Vanhoovan, a prominent farmer lies in jail here at the point of death from the effects of two charges of buckshot in his body. Vanhoovan went to Nic Engels' farm to poison his stock out of revenge for alleged wrongs, and was shot by Engels. William Engels then swore out a warrant and had Vanhoovan arrested. He confessed to having intended to poison the stock and paris green was found on his person. Engels will probably be arrested as Vanhoovan cannot live.

A Veteran Editor Is Dead.

Fond du Lac, Wis., March 19.—[Special.]—Timothy F. Strong, one of the oldest editors in the state, died here last night. He had a brilliant war record, being one of the first to enlist as Wisconsin volunteers.

Wisconsin Lumbermen Confer.

Milwaukee, March 19.—The sixth annual meeting of the Retail Lumber Dealers' association of Wisconsin was begun Wednesday afternoon in the Hotel Pfister clubroom, about seventy-five dealers from various parts of the state being present. President A. C. Dodge said that the association had proved of great advantage, and that the retail lumber business of the state would be in an unprecedentedly bad condition at present if the association had not been maintained. Routine business, including election of officers, is being transacted this afternoon.

CLAIM IT WAS A TRICK.

Story of the Sinking of the Hawkins Not Believed.

New York, March 19.—Spanish detectives engaged in keeping watch on the movements of the Cubans in this country are very much exercised over the report that the steamer Hawkins did not sink the morning of January 28, but that she made her way to the island, landed her cargo and is now laid up at one of the Florida keys. It is said that the Hawkins merely crawled along the coast, waiting for a storm. The storm broke on Monday night, and on Tuesday morning the crew left the ship in small boats, taking a good many of the passengers with them. The detectives say that at the time the Cubans knew their intended movements were known to the United States and the Spanish authorities in this country. They knew the cruisers Raleigh and Montgomery, under command of Admiral Budge, were watching for them outside, assisted by the revenue cutters Morrill, McLean and Colfax. It was necessary, they say, to take some desperate measures to make it appear that the Hawkins had not gone to Cuba, and this means was adopted.

SATOLLI IS RECALLED.

Archbishop Averardi to Succeed the Papal Delegate.

New York, March 19.—Cardinal Satolli, the papal delegate to this country, will say farewell to this country forever, and sail for Rome early in May. The man who, in all probability, will succeed the cardinal is already here. He is Archbishop Averardi, Titular of the Ancient See of Tarsus in Asia Minor, one of the ablest of the younger dignitaries who have the ear of the pope. He was sent here, ostensibly on a special mission, and intends to visit various sections of the country, extending his journey to Mexico, which, in the near future, will be placed under the control of the papal delegate at Washington.

All Medallions Must Come Off.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 19.—The senate Wednesday adopted a resolution directing the soldiers' monument commission to strike from the monument, now in course of erection, all medallions of living and dead soldiers and persons and substitute therefor plates bearing the names of all the Iowa army organizations in the war, their date and place of enlistment and the date of their discharge. The commission expects the house to concur in the senate resolution.

Sends the Armenians $10,000.

New York, March 19.—The following has been received from the international Armenian relief committee at Constantinople: "All our available funds exhausted; thirteen distributing centers calling for help; people perishing; what shall we answer?" And in response the national Armenian relief committee forwarded today by cable $10,000.

To Intercept the Bermuda.

New York, March 19.—A dispatch from Kingston says that a British warship has been sent to intercept the steamer Bermuda, which, it is alleged, intends to embark an expedition there.

The Former Janesville Man Is Doing Well In Chicago.

J. Glenn Wray, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Wray is doing well in Chicago, and was recently appointed assistant electrical engineer of the Chicago Electric Light and Power Company. Mr. Wray began work with this firm some time ago, his first position being that of wire tester. By strict attention to business and hard work, he has earned a promotion, and there are now but two men holding better positions with the company, they being the chief engineer and the superintendent.

Y. M. C. A. BATH ROOMS IN DEMAND
Many People Patronize Them—New Rule For Junior Class.

Last week 100 baths were given to the Y. M. C. A. building, eighty two of these being taken on Saturday. On Monday of this week twenty two were given while on Tuesday the record was twenty five. A new rule has been made whereby the boys in the junior department are admitted to the baths only on Saturday forenoons, while adults are admitted daily from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.

PAY $1,000 A YEAR TO UNCLE SAMUEL

ROCK RIVER COTTON COMPANY POSTAGE BILL.

Lewis Knitting Company Second on the List of Stamp Buyers, and the Parker Pen Company Third—Janesville Machine Company's Business is Also Large.

Four or five firms are doing their best to make Janesville one of the big stamp markets of the state. The amount of money that passes through the stamp window in a month would surprise those occasional correspondents who find two or two cent stamps in thirty days sufficient for their needs. The money that three of the best known local concerns spend in stamps would make a big income for a man of ordinary tastes.

"You would be surprised to see the amount of stamps that we deal out in $15 and $25 lots" remarked a local clerk, "but of course these $15 and $20 lots are not used for personal correspondence."

"Howe Brothers, of the Rock River Cotton Company, head the list of stamp users, and their bill for stamps and wrappers amounts in a year to nearly a thousand dollars. The Lewis Knitting Company probably ranks as a close second, while the Parker Pen Company, which sends mail to every part of the globe, is third. These three concerns are doing a great deal of advertising for the Bower City. The Janesville Machine Company does a heavy mail business, although much of their advertising matter goes by express. Valentine's School of Telegraphy probably stands fifth on the list, as far as stamp purchases are concerned, for although they receive a large amount by mail, their letters generally contain a reply stamp, which of course cuts down the local sales."

The clerk went on to say that other business customers of the stamp window were the local banks, the Barb Wire Company and the Hay Tool Company. The newspapers do not get the credit they deserve in this connection, for although they send out more pieces of mail matter than any two concerns in the city, their mail bills are paid monthly at pound rates.

GRAND ARMY CAMP FIRE PLANS

Next Tuesday Evening's Celebration Will Be Pleasurable and Patriotic.

Janesville veterans will outdo themselves managing the big Grand Army campfire which will be held at the McKey store on Main street next Tuesday. The program will be presented in the big ground floor room, while the supper—a soldier's supper—will be served on the second floor.

Governor Upham will be present and will address the men who fought with him, for the common good. Commander Hoard—justly famed as a speaker and story teller—will also speak. No Rock county person need be told that the remarks of Surgeon General Whiting will be bright, crisp and interesting, and there will be brief "talks" by many others. The musical part of the program will be unusually good. Col. Kimberley will lead the singing and all indications point to the most successful camp fire ever held in this vicinity. The local post hope to see all of Janesville in attendance, and with a program like the following there can be no doubt but what the big store will be packed:

DEALERS HAVE MANY "BAD BILLS"
Eight Merchants Turn In $2,000 of Questionable Accounts

The first statement of the Mercantile Protective Agency will come out about April 1, and without doubt will be a surprise to many. The first eight merchants on the list turned in $2,000 worth of bills which are considered about valueless. The merchants in question are in the shoe, clothing and grocery business.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used one minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." C. D. Stevens

BORE TORTURE WITHOUT A WORD

William Wallace Watches While His Fingers Are Being Sewed Up.

William Wallace, superintendent for the Bower City Power and Light Company, put his left hand on the big engine yesterday afternoon to see if a bearing was hot. The crank struck his hand and broke one finger, scraping the flesh off two others.

Dr. W. H. Palmer had two hours work dressing the mangled flesh and through it all Wallace sat bolt upright watching him.

"Won't you take ether?" he was asked.

"No, go ahead and let me get out of here," he said. As the long, bent needle was pushed into a flap of flesh and drawn through from the other side with a pair of forceps Wallace gritted his teeth, but made no complaints, nor did he say anything when the torn flaps were cut away with nippers. Fifteen stitches had to be taken in one of the fingers.

Good Spring Overcoat Time.

We have a nice assortment of new things in spring overcoats, in all shades and the new length from $7 to $15. What can be handier for a man in this climate than a spring overcoat? F. H. Baark.

10 Dozen Wringers.

We have just received 10 dozen double geared wringers. They usually sell for $2.35 but while they last we mark them down to $1.39. Lowell's Cash Store.

NEWS OF THE DAY IN TOWN.

A SOCIETY smokes, the "Lyonettes" 5 cent cigar.

CHILD's rubbers 23 cents. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

WAIT for Primrose & West; they are coming to stay. Misses' rubbers 25 cents at Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

EVERYBODY knows Primrose & West are ahead of the times.

WOMEN's carpet slippers 25 cents only at Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

A WORD to the wise is sufficient. Smoke Lyonettes. They are the best.

We have plenty of those ladies' rubbers at 33 cents. Brown Bros. & L. coln.

PRINTED warp effects in the new corded dimities at 12 1/2 cents a yard. Bort, Bailey & Co.

You should see our $2, $2.50 and $3 ladies' and gents fine shoes. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We are constantly receiving good second growth dry oak wood. If you need any see me. F. A. Taylor.

SWEATERS and plenty of them. One dollar for all-wool, either maroon, black or blue. Excellent quality. Zeigler.

We are now ready to show you the new patterns in ingrain carpets; a full line of the celebrated "Lowell make." Bort, Bailey & Co.

We often exchange merchandise of various kinds for good quality wood. So can supply your wants at reasonable figures. F. A. Taylor.

If you want to see the latest in ladies' and gents' fine shoes go to a shoe store where they have them, and we run the place. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

OUR line of white goods is complete. No matter what kind you want, we have it for you and at the right price. Bort, Bailey & Co.

THE ladies all say that our line of embroideries is the finest in the city, and that we give the best values for the money. Bort, Bailey & Co.

We think this spring that quality, price and make up are needed to sell suits, and we are positive that we have all these in Adler Bros. $10.00 suits. They have spread themselves on this line this season. F. H. Baark.

THE English Middlesex sox, our popular specialty, at two pairs for 25 cents. Have received this morning another case of them. Remember we will give you a regular 20 cent sox at 15 cents. T. J. Zeigler.

If its the coat that makes the man, then the "Sharpe" Covert coat will do it. Nonsense to pay $30 to $50 for a spring coat. Will save you enough money on one of these top coats, and give you a better garment than the high priced tailored one, to buy a spring suit at $12.00 and upwards. T. J. Zeigler.

Know Hood's Cured

"I was all run down and could not sleep at night on account of the continuous and severe pains through my body. I had also stomach troubles and catarrh. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a short time I commenced to improve, and after using three bottles in all, my complaint entirely left me. I now have an appetite, sleep well and am free from all stomach trouble. I know I was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla."

THE OVERFLOW OF LOCAL NEWS.

THE MISSIONARY TEA A SUCCESS

"An Observer" Speaks of the First M. E. Church Work.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—Last night the people of Janesville, Wis., were treated to another spread by the ladies of the First M. E. church, as they gave their annual missionary tea offering tea. To say we had a treat, would be slightly speaking. Notwithstanding the stormy night and bad walking, they were greeted with a fair audience, and the meeting was a success financially, as the receipts were nearly thirty dollars. The afternoon session consisted of singing, speaking and reading. Little Margie Bates and Gladys Rutter won great applause by the rendering of their part of the programme. Then came the song of the Loyal Band, by Alice Cousins, Pearl Hall, Fannie Clithero and Mabel Woodman, with Mrs. A. W. Hall as accompanist, which was well rendered. We were also treated to a duet by the Misses Elva Crawford and Etta Cousins, with Mrs. Clithero as accompanist, was finely rendered. The several readings by Allie Clithero, Allie Sanner, Mrs. Barfoot, Mrs. Will Bates and others were enjoyable and very appropriate, also the original paper by Miss Jessie Williams. Space prevents a more minute detail of the excellent affair and those who did not attend missed a rare treat. I am sure, being a witness, if the heathen could have had the opportunity to look in on the affair and be conscious of the fact that it was for their good, their hearts would have leaped with joy. Let the good work go on and God bless the ladies. BY AN OBSERVER.

A trial will convince you that Sweet Moments cigarettes are the best.

COUGHS AND COLDS.

ELY'S PINEOLA BALM is a sure remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes quickly, abates the cough, and renders expectoration easy.

CONSUMPTIVES will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their case to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 10c; Ely's Pineola Balm, 25c. Sold by druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 26 Warren St., New York.

"EIGHT BELLS" IS VERY FUNNY

The Brothers Byrne Pleased a Large Audience Last Night.

A Janesville audience laughed until sides became sore, and tears came involuntarily last night, when the "New Eight Bells" was presented at the Myers Grand. The production is of the rib-tickling variety, and one of the funniest of the funny. The acrobatic work was one of the features, and the athletes won hearty applause. The whole company is capable, and no improvement on the performance could be suggested. Manager Stoddard seems to possess the knack of booking good attractions, and a goodly audience showed their appreciation of his selection of "Eight Bells."

Why Olney Smiled.

One warm day last summer Mr. Olney was at his Boston office for a short time on personal business. An enterprising contemporary sent a young man up to ask him how he should like to be president and Mr. Olney smiled. The young man went back and wrote a half column description of that smile. Now in Washington another correspondent calls upon the secretary of state and also asks politely what he has to say about this matter, and telegraphs great headlines to the effect that Mr. Olney laughed! But probably it was only another and a cordial smile. It is not a laughing matter.—Boston Transcript.

GAVE A "BABY LUNCHEON."

Mrs. C. G. Williams Entertains Infants and Their Mothers.

Mrs. C. G. Williams gave a "baby luncheon" today in honor of her granddaughter Louise, who with her mother is visiting here. The baby guests accompanied by their mothers were: Katherine Carl, Marie Allison, Margaret Allen, Evelyn Kavelage, Sydney B. Swick, Paul Kemmett, Howard King, Culver Page, Thomas Sloan, Everett Bemis, Andrew Sloan, Stanley Judd, Russell Parker, Louise Williams.

MONKEYS HAVE MINDS.

There is Abundant Evidence That They Can Think.

"That the monkey possesses intelligence to a considerable degree is probably true," said a hotel proprietor who has a small menagerie on his premises. "I believe, however, much of the intelligence with which that animal is credited, is due to his love of mimicry. The other day two young men with two girls were at the monkey's cage feeding him peanuts. One of the girls was chewing gum and one of the men suggested that she give the monkey some, expecting that if he took it in his mouth it would stick to his teeth and he would make sorry work of trying to chew it. The girl at once parted with the sweet morsel she was so industriously chewing, extending it toward the cage. The monkey grabbed it instantly, and put it into his mouth, but instead of chewing it or attempting to, began pulling it out in small ribbons, as children are frequently seen to do. When he had it all out of his mouth he rolled it into a compact ball between his hands, threw it into his mouth and began the operation again. He appeared to enjoy the performance as much as his visitors. That was imitation."

"That's all right," rejoined another, "but I had an experience with that same monkey, wherein he displayed intelligence. I was by the cage smoking one day and I thought to annoy him by blowing smoke in his face. I was much surprised to find that instead of being annoyed he enjoyed it, as was evidenced by his edging up as near me as possible to receive the smoke in larger volumes. Soon he began scratching himself at the point where most of the smoke came against him. When I had smoked one side for a few minutes he would turn squarely round to have the other side treated in the same way. Then he sat directly in front of me and received the smoke squarely in the face and neck. I don't know whether he held his breath, but he did not cough, sneeze or wince a particle. To complete the job, he then sat with his back toward me and it would have done you good to have seen him scratch. It made me think of the kickers of a hay-tender in motion. Now, that monkey knew, through some sort of intelligence, that nothing will send flees and other insects to the surface or stupefy them as effectually as tobacco smoke."—Utica Observer.

A Medical Discovery Which Will Change the Treatment of All Such Diseases.

It has long been thought not only by some physicians but by the people in general that the common, painful and exceedingly annoying trouble, piles, was practically incurable by any other means than a surgical operation, and this belief has been the cause of years of needless suffering, because of the natural dread of surgical operations.

There are many salves, ointments and similar remedies on the market which afford some relief in cases of piles, but the Pyramid Pile Cure is the only preparation so far introduced that can be reliably depended upon to cure to stay cured, every form of itching, bleeding or protruding piles.

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley of 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, was told by her physicians that nothing but a surgical operation costing between seven and eight hundred dollars could cure her as she had suffered for 15 years, yet even in such a case as hers the Pyramid Pile Cure accomplished a complete cure. She says: "I knew an operation would be death to me and tried the Pyramid with very little hope and it is not to be wondered at that I am so enthusiastic in its praise."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says he suffered for 40 years from piles and 20 years from itching piles and in his case two packages of the Pyramid cured him.

Mr. D. E. Reed of South Lyons, Mich., says I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered for years and it is now eighteen months since I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents and $1 per package and as it contains no opium, cocaine or other poisonous drug can be used with perfect safety.

No one need suffer from piles in any form who will give this excellent remedy a trial. Made by the Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich. Any druggist can get it for you.

Their Price Betrays Them.

ALUM baking powders make unwholesome food, and no housewife having regard for the health of her family will knowingly use them. Resist all efforts of peddlers and grocers to sell them to you. Aside from the fact that low-priced baking powders contain alum and are unwholesome, their use is extravagant. It requires two pounds of the best of them to go as far as one pound of ROYAL BAKING POWDER, because they are deficient in leavening gas.

Economical food, pure and wholesome food, and food that is of finest flavor, light, sweet, and palatable, require the use of ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

BAKING Powders sold, either wholesale or retail, at a lower price than the "Royal" are almost invariably made from alum, and should be avoided under all circumstances.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 105 WALL ST., NEW-YORK.

A GREAT DESERT.

Plans to Lessen the Dangers of the Great Mojave Waste.

The great Mojave desert is no longer to be a trackless waste, says the San Francisco Examiner. The loss of hapless prospectors who have perished from year to year has finally moved the board of supervisors of San Bernardino county, which includes within it 20,000 square miles of this desert, to take some action to make it possible for prospectors to travel that arid region in comparative safety. Recently a number of mining men petitioned that a complete map of the desert be made, showing the roads, trails and sources of water supply, and a committee was ordered to investigate and report. The result of their investigations has just been made public and they recommend all that was asked and more. There are trails and roads leading all over the desert to the various mining camps which dot that waste of sand and it is proposed to have maps made with blue-print copies, which will be supplied to desert travelers, with all the landmarks designated, thus enabling them to follow the trails with much less danger of losing their way. But in addition it is proposed to establish a system of signboards and guide-posts at intervals along the trail, giving information as to directions and distances, and, more important than all, the nearest point where water may be found. Nine-tenths of the people lost in the desert die of thirst. Not infrequently their bleached bones have been found within a short distance of the spring they sought. By the new system which is planned the unlucky prospector will know how far he is from water and will lay his plans accordingly. Rewards are to be offered to any one discovering new springs or developing any water at points where none is known to exist. Springs already known will be cleaned out and the water protected from pollution by wild animals or by careless handling. The mining men are intensely interested in the proposed innovation. It is estimated that in the thirty years in which mining has been followed in the desert not less than $20,000,000 has been taken out, while in that time scores of men have been lost whose lives might have been saved had such a system been in vogue as is now proposed. The desert is now fairly swarming with prospectors and others will go out as soon as the weather becomes more tolerable.

The Foolish Turk.

The old turkey gobble wisely said, "To the woods we will quickly fly And roost high up in the forest trees, For Christmas is fast drawing nigh." "I'll roost right here in the apple tree," One lazy young turkey boasted, But, sad to say, on Christmas day, Instead of roosting he roasted. —Judge.

Charges Are Not Sustained.

Springfield, Ill., March 19.—The state board of public charities Wednesday made to Governor Altgeld their report of the investigations of alleged mismanagement and cruelty on the part of the management of the Central Hospital for the Insane at Jacksonville.

They say the charges are not supported by the facts in the cases mentioned, and in conclusion say: "From observation and the evidence, we find the institution well kept, clean and wholesome. Kindness and gentleness are fostered and encouraged, harshness and unkindness are prohibited, and the evidence shows nothing to the contrary."

Five Killed in a Powder Mill.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., March 19.—A powder-mill at Rifton, Ulster county, blew up Wednesday. The mangled bodies of five men have been found in the ruins. The same mill blew up eighteen months ago, and at that time four men were killed. The names of the men are: Jones, Smalley, Peterson, and Becker (two).

Dervishes Ready to Attack.

Rome, March 19.—The Popolo Romano has a dispatch from Massowah which says that the dervishes are within two hours of Cassala and are awaiting Osman Digna's arrival before attacking. STATE OF WISCONSIN—CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.—In the matter of the inventory of George Earl Wetmore, commonly called Earl Wetmore, by whom a petition for a discharge from his debts under Chapter 179 of the Revised Statutes of Wisconsin was filed on the 17th day of March, A. D. 1896.

To whom it may concern:

In pursuance of an order made by the Hon. John R. Bennett, Circuit Judge of said court, dated March 17th, 1896, all creditors of said George Earl Wetmore, commonly called Earl Wetmore, are required to show cause, if they have any, before said Circuit Court at the court house in the city of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, on the 14th day of May, A. D. 1896, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as the matter of said petition can be heard, why said George Earl Wetmore, commonly called Earl Wetmore, should not be adjudged to be an insolvent debtor, or with the purview of Chapter 179 of the Revised Statutes of Wisconsin and the several acts amendatory thereto, and why an assignment of the estate of said George Earl Wetmore, commonly called Earl Wetmore, such insolvent debtor, should not be made, and why he should not be discharged from his debts, and why such other and further order should not be made as shall be just and equitable in the premises.

A CHURCH ROBBED OF MISSION MONEY

GRACELESS THIEVES RAID
"OLD TRINITY."

Cash is Taken From the Receptacle in the Ante Room—Entrance Effects At a Wing Window—Police Have a Clue—Amount Taken is Unknown.

Graceless thieves raided Trinity Episcopal church a few nights ago and robbed the mission box. The matter has been kept quiet ever since and has just leaked out, despite all efforts to keep it from the ears of the public. What the profits of the raid were, is not known, as the box had not been opened for some time and the amount of the contents could not be estimated.

The police think that an entrance was affected by means of a window in the wing, and from there the robbers pressed through to the church. The mission box is fastened to the wall in the ante room. It had been broken open and the contents taken, but the front doors were not unlocked. The robbery was reported to Chief Acheson as soon as it was discovered, and the officers have a theory as to who the guilty parties were. The money in the box was sealed up in envelopes, the same as when deposited therein by the parishioners.

Old Warrants "Cleaned Up."

With the clever capture of Jack Hess Sunday night, Sheriff Appleby has caught every one of the several old-time Rock county criminals who have been wanted by law officers and have fought shy of the county for a long time.

Patsy Griffin seems to be wholly within the power of King Alcohol and all efforts to reform him have been failures. Accordingly, when he was brought before Judge Phelps in the municipal court today, he was sent to jail for sixty days. Some time ago Patsy took the gold cure, but Mr. Keeley's compound had no more effect on him then so much water as far as permanent results were concerned, and he took to his whisky again as natural as a Goose Island gosling takes to the "gas pond." Patsy had been drunk for some days, and was arrested last night.

James Clark also got a five days sentence for being intoxicated.

RECEIVER FOR THE LIGHT COMPANY

Orrin W. Bemis Has Charge of the Bower City Power and Light Co's Affairs.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Orrin W. Bemis was appointed receiver of the Bower City Light and Power Co. The move was made after careful consideration, and was believed to be the quickest way to put the affairs of the company in satisfactory condition. It would have been necessary in one form or another in order to bring about a readjustment to accommodate the changed situation. The Monterey fire hastened the step.

As the business has increased it has been necessary to put in an expensive plant. Profits have been satisfactory, stockholders say, and intimate that that the receivership is to be but temporary. Mr. Bemis is familiar with the lighting business, having managed the affairs of the company for nine months before the new organization was formed.

CUBAN WAR AND THE LEAF TRADE

Local Dealer Says It Makes Very Little Difference.

A local leaf man, who is well posted says he is much surprised that Wisconsin leaf is not in great demand, owing to the Cuban war. The local leaf market should be a booming in consequence of the trouble he says, for very little tobacco is being shipped from that island. As Wisconsin leaf is a close second he argues that it should be in demand. Instead, however, the reverse is true, and the outlook is none too promising.

HOGS BROUGHT GOOD PRICES.

Auctioneer Dooley Got $25.75 Each For Porkers Yesterday.

At an auction sale at the Andrew Stevens' place yesterday, hogs sold for nearly as much as horses would bring. Auctioneer Dooley, who presided at the sale, reported that five hogs were disposed of bringing on an average $25.75 each.

Twenty-Five Cent Worst Plaids.

The lot advertised two weeks ago practically closed out—fifteen new pieces received this morning. The patterns and effects are very similar to the 75 cent and $1.00 silk mixed plaids. They are 36 inches wide and at 25 cents are the best values in the city for the money. Bort, Bailey & Co.

A Question.

Having disposed of my business, the next thing is to sell my home. Plenty of people would like it. Its only a question of price. To all who want the nicest home in the city a cordial invitation is extended to call any day in the week and look it over, and then make me their best offer, either cash, trade or both. L. R. Treat, 56 South Third street.

CITY HAS THE RIGHT TO BOAST A LITTLE

NEW HIGH SCHOOL A REMARKABLE BUILDING.

Special Edition of the Gazette Copiously Illustrated Will Deal With the Subject Next Saturday—Forms Close For the First Run at 10 O'clock Tomorrow.

A sixteen page edition of The Gazette on tinted book paper will be issued Saturday and will go to every part of the state and to educators and school papers throughout the country.

By the aid of forty beautifully finished half tone engravings it will show how complete a high school building Janesville has erected.

Educators say the Bower City has a school that typifies better than any other building in the state the latest ideas in high school construction.

Exceptional facilities are given for scientific study, and for a solid everyday business training as well as for college preparatory work.

A thorough presentation of these facts will be made by The Gazette and Superintendent Mayne has arranged to send copies to every family in Rock and adjoining counties where there are children of school age.

While showing up thus fully the claims of the city as a school center, it was thought well to lay before the people of towns and villages tributary to Janesville some facts regarding the commercial standing of the city. This will be by no means the least interesting part of the edition, including as it does much of a biographical and historical nature.

A limited amount of advertising matter has been included in the edition. The last revision of proofs begins tonight and the forms will be put on the press for the first run tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

There has been a great demand for extra papers. The orders are coming in steadily and those who wish to send copies of the paper to friends in other cities as a showing of Janesville's progress, should order at once. The price of extra copies will be five cents.

SCIENTIFIC BASKET BALL GAME

Capt. Rothermel's Team Defeats Capt. Johnson's Seven Men

The audience at the Y. M. C. A. building last evening had the pleasure of witnessing the most scientific basket ball game of the season.

Captain Rothermel's team defeated Captain Walter Johnson's team by a score of 6 to 5. But seven fouls were made during the game. T. W. Goldin and Eugene Keesler acted as referees while Frank Spoon acted as timekeeper. The team's lined up as follows:

JOHNSON. Position. ROTHERMEL.
Spyder, Forwards. Palmer,
McGuire, Forwards. Rothermel,
Stewart, Forwards. Stedham,
Johnson, Center. Fleck,
Valentine, Center. Smith,
Kimball, Backs. Williamson,
Pratt, Backs. Brooks.

BENEATH A CLOUD OF SORROW

Mrs. C. H. Hopkins.

The funeral of Mrs. C. H. Hopkins, who died at her home near Beloit Tuesday, was held this afternoon. Mrs. Hopkins had been an invalid for four years, and had partially recovered from a long and severe sickness when a stroke of paralysis in September, '95, rendered her helpless. Since this time she has been only waiting for the final summons which came with a second slight stroke on Monday, with a third fatal one Tuesday. The Hopkins family came from New York in 1855, and settled on the farm now occupied by the son, the parents having died some years ago.

Mrs. J. F. Ennis.

Mrs. J. F. Ennis, of Orfordville, died this morning at 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ennis was well known and highly esteemed by numerous friends in this city, and her death although not entirely unexpected, is none the less a painful shock. She had been sick for some time with lung trouble, and was for some weeks in Chicago taking treatment. Besides a husband she leaves four children, three daughters and one son. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

EIGHT HUNDRED SIGN THE WARD PETITION

SPRING BROOK COMMITTEE HARD AT WORK.

Members are Much Encouraged, and Say They are Confident of Success—The School House is the Goal For Which They Contend, Rather Than a Ward.

Spring Brook people are working hard for an extra ward and "that school house." The committee having the work in hand feel much encouraged, and are confident of success.

"We now have eight hundred names on our petition," said one of the members, "and we have not yet gotten them all. Under the uniform charter clause, there must be one thousand people in the territory claiming recognition before it can be set off as a ward. If eight hundred names on a petition does not show a population of one thousand people, then I do not know what would. We are going to push the matter to the end, as we think our children deserve educational privileges as well as other children. Of course the change could not be made until May anyhow, because the law says that such changes shall be made at a time when they will not effect an election. If, however," he added, "they decide to give us the school house, we may not push the application to be declared a ward by ourselves, quite so hard. We are greatly pleased with the prospect, and will not let up work."

FENNER RIMBALL, Pres.

His Price a Difficulty.
"Every man has his price," sententiously announced the philosopher of the all-night drug store, where the street-railroad franchise was being discussed.
"Well," said the wit of the establishment, "I wish somebody would discover my price and offer it to me."
"My boy," solemnly remarked the perfumery drummer, who had not spoken before that evening, "there is no smaller coin made than a cent."
And for several seconds there was no sound heard save the drip, drip of the real mineral waters from the hydrant.—Buffalo Express.

The Patient Fish.
First Fish—How are you getting along?
Second Fish—No luck at all. The man at the end of that line is a chump, or else he's as full as a goat.
First Fish—What's the trouble?
Second Fish—I took the bait off his hook an hour ago, and I've been waiting ever since for him to put some more on.—Detroit Catholic.

Establishing His Reputation.
Burden—Goodly must be an awful liar.
Banting—How can you say such a thing? He has the reputation of being the most truthful man in the country. Nobody ever doubts his word.
Burden—That's exactly why I say so. Truth is so much stranger than fiction that a man must be a very clever liar to get himself believed.—Truth.

Just the Other Way.
"Why are all those knots tied in your handkerchief, Stimson?"
"Oh, they represent various errands my wife commissioned me to do."
"And you made them on purpose to remember?"
"No. On purpose to forget."—Detroit Free Press.

The Pink of Politeness.
Miss Westend—Here are cards for my cousin's wedding reception; but as it is in Chicago, of course I can't go. In sending my card, should I write "Congratulations," or anything?
Chicago Aunt—Certainly, my dear; write on it: "Many happy returns."—N. Y. Weekly.

A Refutation.
"There doesn't seem to be a great deal of money in stories," remarked the young man with literary aspirations.
"That's where you're palpably mistaken," replied the architect. "Just go out and take a look at that seven-story building I have been putting up."—Washington Star.

Raw Sugar.
She stood on a weighing machine; he had dropped a penny in and the indicator pointed to 225.
"Lovey," she gurgled, "I've gained 18 pounds in the last two weeks."
"Sweetey," he chirruped, "I never loved you so much before." And the machine broke down.—To Date.

Inexhaustible Thoughtfulness.
Mrs. Manhattan—My husband gave me a terrible fright last night. I thought something awful had happened.
Mrs. Talkerly—Why? Did he come in drunk?
Mrs. Manhattan—No; sober.—Town Topics.

Where It Must Fall.
No matter how the searching cathode ray may reach where falls the keenest human eye,
It still must fall to hunt the secrets out
Which lurk within the bosom of mince pie.
—Detroit News.

WHY SHE DISLIKED HIM.

Ethel—How do you like Fopping-ton, Miss Borrow?
Miss Borrow—Not at all. He can't pronounce his r's, and I do detest being addressed as Miss Bow-wow.—Collier's Weekly.

Her Winning Card.
The independent girl has guessed the way to charm, God bless 'er! She knows by being self-possessed. We all sigh to possess her.
—L. A. W. Bulletin.

His Marvelous Power.
Photographer—Yes, sir; I can photograph the money in your pocketbook just as you stand.
Visitor—Well, you're a real genius then; I went through it just now and couldn't find a cent!—Chicago Record.

Only Time They Agreed.
Mrs. Henpeck—You're drunk all the time! I think you were drunk when I married you!
Henpeck—I'm sure of it!—Town Topics.

Diplomacy.
Miggs—When you order a swell dinner, eat it, and suddenly discover that you are broke, what do you do?
Diggs—The proprietor—if I can.—N. Y. World.

The Honest Man.
The Heiress—Am I the only girl in the whole wide world you love?
He—No, dear, but you were the only girl I knew who could afford to marry me.—Bay City Chat.

She Was Left.
"Has Miss Scorchier abandoned her wheel?"
"No; her wheel has abandoned her."—Detroit Free Press.

Of Course.
"I'm a terror when I'm mad."
"Just like any dog."—Chicago Evening Post.

TRY AN HERB GARDEN.

A Pleasant Way for a Woman Who Has a Home to Make Money.
An herb garden ought to be a resource of those gentlewomen who have homes and hardly wherewithal to maintain them, says the New York Journal.
A half acre, a quarter, or even a single garden plot may be made to yield sweet savor and solid cash. Make it rich and light and free of flints; then in the sunniest part set savory things—sage, thyme, sweet basil, sweet majoram, parsley, dill, fennel, caraway and coriander. Roots are best, because quickest to give returns, but lacking them sow seeds. Keep the ground light, well stirred and free of weeds. Water now and again with soapuds and lay a light mulch about the roots. Then when there are green, tall stems just coming into flower pluck them delicately after the dew is off, tie them in bundles and hang them in a shaded, airy place to dry.

This is if you are to sell them in bulk—all of a kind. A much better way is to tie bouquets of them—coaxing the most famous cook you know to tell you exactly the right proportions. Once you have hit the palate of your customers you can be to a degree autocratic. When the bouquets are bone-dry tie them in dozens and label the dozen accurately with the component parts, adding the date of plucking and the year of growth. Special savoriness is thought by many to abide in the stocks of May and June; those of August are commonly the rankest and the late October pluckings particularly delicate.

Set a rose hedge about your plot—the sweet old-fashioned hundred leaf roses that throughout the length of June are so prodigal of bloom. Dried rose leaves for her linen chest are the delight of a housewife—and the plucking and drying is not tedious work. But the rose barrier has other uses. At the root of it and in some degree protected by it you should set the healing simples, which live and thrive best in partial shadow—hoarhound, camomile, catnip, tansy, elecampane, comfrey, wormwood—even the wild boneset—and by no means leaving out big white poppies and velvet yellow marigolds.

The herbs must be plucked and dried like those for the kitchen—all, that is, but the comfrey, whose virtue is in the roots. They are taper and fleshy and when pounded to a paste with honey or lump sugar are a specific for coughs and bleeding lungs. Small, tightly sealed glass or earthen pots of the conserve might find ready sale. So might genuine hoarhound candy and a tonic, bitter, aromatic cordial that most gentlewomen know how to brew from tansy, camomile, wormwood and boneset.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. C. D. Stevens.

WHY DO WE DO IT?

Perhaps some sage can tell me, for, indeed, I'd like to know the secret of the titles that I hear where'er I go.

There's Brown, who studied medicine, attaining some renown, Whose wife I hear referred to now as "Mrs. Dr. Brown."

What reason for the custom can the wise ones give to me?

Why not as well refer to her as "Mrs. Brown, M. D.?"

Because O'Shea is on the bench why should we always say,

In speaking of his charming wife, "There's Mrs. Judge O'Shea?"

Is she a judge by marriage? Was she wedded to the court?

There should be some good reason why the title she should sport.

If one should wed a justice, pray advise me, would she be Entitled to be known by all as "Mrs. Jones, J. P.?"

If not, what reason can we give for speaking as we do

Of "Mrs. Major Cannonball" or "Mrs. Bishop Fox?"

Do titles go to families for use of every one? And if they do, why aren't they used by daughter and by son?

Why not a "Miss Lieutenant Sharp?" Why not a junior too?

At least let's be consistent in the things we try to do.

—Chicago Post.

LOVE MY DOG.

Duffy was the property of Caldwell of the Tenth, and was looked upon in the light of an inheritance, having come down to him from Wentworth—of the same—when the latter had been ordered away.

Caldwell went into Wentworth's quarters at once and found Duffy rubbing up a pair of his ex-master's discarded boots, with a view to using them himself. He liked the man's looks, and he liked the condition of the vacated quarters, with their slate gray painted woodwork, so he took the quarters and agreed to take Duffy at a striker's usual rate of remuneration.

Duffy entered promptly upon his duties, and was entirely satisfactory. He had no incumbrances in the way of family or sweethearts, and he was faithful to a degree that was occasionally exasperating. For six months he served Caldwell in singleness of purpose, having in that time been incapacitated only for six days—that is, for 48 hours after each of the paymaster's visits, and Caldwell, knowing the ways of strikers, made no objection. Duffy slept uproariously in his rooms, and Caldwell made his own fires, and brushed his own clothes, and went with unlabeled boots. In the interim no hour was too early for rising, none too late to sit up and keep logs on the andirons that the rooms might be warm and cheerful for the "leftenant," no duty imposed too arduous provided it served Caldwell's ends.

Blackstone, seeing the excellence of Duffy, departed from the strict code of honesty in the matter of servants which governs the army and made overtures to the model striker. Blackstone had no business to do it, and Duffy knew it, and a fine and inscrutable grin came upon his Hiernian mouth.

Blackstone had said, with an assumption of off handedness, "Duffy, what do you get?"

Having due regard for his employer's credit in the world, he answered calmly, "Twenty dollars, sor."

"Get out!" said Blackstone.

"Yes, sor," replied Duffy.

"I want to know the truth, not lies like that."

"You'd best ask the leftenant, sor. I disremember."

"He works you deuced hard."

"Does he, then?"

"My man is no good. Suppose you come to me. You won't have to sit up to all hours for me."

Duffy only smiled, but the smile was not pleasing.

"What do you think of it, Duffy?"

"I niver think, sor. The leftenant says I'm to do as I'm told and not think."

Upon this Blackstone went away, and Duffy saluted him respectfully. In justice to the officer's common sense, it must be said that it was only partial intoxication which could have led him to place himself in such a position toward a soldier.

Duffy did not repeat the conversation to Caldwell, because he knew it would make trouble between the two men, and Caldwell—whose disposition was not of the mildest—had several quarrels on his hands as it was.

The lieutenant fell into the habit of keeping the striker up very late, night after night, so Duffy inspected his pockets several times in succession while Caldwell was sleeping as soundly as if justice had been the soporific, and not, as was the case, sutler's whisky, and he judged, from the fact that sometimes there was much loose change and again almost nothing, that his master was playing too much at cards. There was nothing to be done. Duffy did not consider that his duties as striker included the moral guidance of his superior. He reflected that it would be a good thing if Caldwell should get married; only then he, Duffy, would very likely lose his place. So he sat up night after night, and it grew monotonous.

Just at this period there came into Duffy's life a yellow and white dog. Exactly why it should have wandered to the door upon one wet and freezing night, when Duffy was in a particularly weary frame of mind, and where it came from he never knew. It was well after midnight and Duffy was sprawled in a leather chair of the troop saddler's manufacture, dozing, with both ears open, when there came a scratching at the door. Duffy thought it was the lieutenant trying to find the knob. It had never been so bad as that yet; nevertheless the striker went and opened the door, to be rewarded by the sight of an extremely small and miserable dog, with piteous eyes.

Now, Duffy was only a soldier, and a soldier loves nothing on earth or in heaven as he does a cur. So Duffy called the dog in and warmed it and fed it and watched it with satisfaction beaming all over his face. It was spotted and dirty and wounded and woefully thin, but Duffy took it to his heart. He spent three nights before the fire, no longer lonely, contentedly trying to find a name for that dog. At last he determined to call it "Bessie," after the much admired daughter of the commanding officer and with a complete disregard for the entire inappropriateness of the name.

After he had settled this to his satisfaction he tried to discover accomplishments in the creature. "Here, Bessie, old boy. Set up now, set up. Can't you set up? Well, then, give us your paw, her, paw, paw, now. Can't you give us your paw? Well, then, lie down. Charge, charge, charge. Down, lie down, down. Can't you charge? Well, then, speak, speak, Bessie, s-p-e-a-k, speak now. Wow! Speak." But Bessie could only follow him with his bright, curious eyes and come when called. So the solace of many more hours of patient waiting lay in teaching Bessie these and many other tricks until he was the most accomplished dog in all the garrison and greatly beloved at the barracks. Duffy was a little annoyed about the comment the inappropriate name called forth, but he insisted that it was as good as another, and the incongruity was soon lost in Bessie's popularity.

Caldwell saw the dog only on rare occasions. It staid in its master's room and slept on his bed and waxed fat in retirement. He had spoken to it several times, but otherwise took no notice of its existence, which secretly riled Duffy. But Caldwell was preoccupied and not quite himself. He came home a good deal the worse for wine one night, and Bessie, being in his way, got a kick that sent him crouching to his master's side. Caldwell might far better have kicked Duffy. However, the striker understood and sympathized with the lieutenant's condition. He himself could never have kicked a dog, even after pay day, but all men are not alike, so Duffy petted Bessie and shut him up in his own room and returned to look after the bodily comfort of his master.

This, considering the wine, was pardonable, but the next offense could not be condoned. It occurred in broad daylight, and Caldwell was sober. He had been having an explanation with the commanding officer, and that gentleman had made reflection upon some of the lieutenant's fast growing habits that had exasperated the already overworked junior almost beyond endurance. He strode into his quarters and found Duffy, who was not expecting him, dividing his attention between Bessie's charms and the buckle of his master's belt. Now, Bessie's disposition inclined him to forgive. He ran to Caldwell, looked up to his face with soft, affectionate eyes and put his little paws, one yellow and one white, upon his knee. Caldwell did not dare to kick the commandant, but he kicked Bessie—and broke the yellow paw. It was the one always held out to Duffy to greet him.

Duffy bandaged the paw, and in time it grew well. But Duffy hated Caldwell with the most dangerous of hatreds—a silent and a waiting one.

Caldwell's habits did not improve. His fondness for whisky, whether good or bad, continued. He had good whisky in his room, and Duffy knew it, for he belonged to the old school of strikers, who do not look upon cigars or liquor as private property.

One day, after Bessie's foot was well, Duffy went to get a drink, because his spirits were low. There was very little whisky in the decanter, barely half a glassful, and an idea suddenly flashed into the striker's mind. Caldwell was officer of the day. He never started to make the rounds without taking enough liquor to keep him warm, and Duffy knew it and saw his revenge laid bare.

The striker took Bessie for a walk over to the hospital to show the steward the mended paw.

"Say," said Duffy, "I've got the toothache. I didn't sleep none last night. Hey you got some—what's that you give me once? Laudanum, was it? Kin you let me hev a bit?"

"Why, yes. I guess so," the steward answered and went into the dispensary to get it.

"Shall I take all that?" inquired the striker, with sweet simplicity.

"Lord! No, man. Put some on cotton and stick it in the tooth."

"Oh, and what wud it do to me if I wuz to swallow it? Wud it kill me?"

"No, there ain't enough for that. It would put you pretty fast asleep, though."

"Oh!" said Duffy again.

Then Bessie went through his tricks for the steward and trotted back home at his master's heels.

That night Caldwell finished the whisky in the decanter and grumbled that the sutler was selling him vile tasting stuff, then started off a little while afterward to make his rounds. The next day he was under arrest—for drunkenness on duty.

And Duffy, who had, with well played reluctance, given some of the most damaging testimony in regard to Caldwell's habits at the court martial, which dismissed the latter, said goodby to the disgraced man with a sparkle—which was not of tears—in his eyes, and he told Bessie to give the "leftenant the right paw," which was the yellow one.

A Picture of the Redeemer.

A Flemish religious picture of the sixteenth century it seems was found in the palace of King Theodore at Magdala when the English expedition captured that place nearly thirty years ago. The picture, which is only 11x13 inches in size, and represents Christ, is now described for the first time in the official journal of the Congo company. The writer of the description suggests that the picture was one of the gifts presented to the king of Abyssinia by the embassy of the king of Portugal in 1520. That it should have been preserved all these years makes it a genuine curiosity of art.

Tottering Thrones.

The kingdoms of the world are trembling and tottering upon their foundations. They realize that the end is upon them and they dare not move for fear of precipitating the conflict. But they are compelled to move, and will soon be gathered together to the battle of the Lord God Almighty.—Elder W. H. Ebert, Seventh Day Adventist, Elmwood, Ind.

Cleaning Clothes with Gasoline.

The free use of gasoline for cleaning clothes and other articles is a most dangerous habit, prevalent in Washington and elsewhere. It is one of the most inflammable of fluids and little less deadly than dynamite in its effects when exploded. Petersburg, Va., was shocked a few days ago at the awful result.

A GREAT BOOK FREE.

When Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first edition of his great work, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," he announced that after 600,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now giving away, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to him, at above address, twenty-one (21) one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sent post paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. Contains 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. The Free Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away.
